Reason Code Description
a. Provider discount through AETNA PPO. Patient not responsible for this amount.
This document contains important information that you should retain for your records. This claim was processed in accordance with the group health plan described in your Evidence of Insurance and Schedule of Benefits. If your claim was denied (in whole or in part), the decision to deny your claim was based on the Medical Benefits and/or Plan Exclusion section(s) of the Plan because the benefits requested are not covered by the Plan and this document serves as notice of an adverse benefit determination. (Please refer to the reason(s) provided for additional information.)
If you think this determination was made in error, you have the right to appeal (see the back of this page for information about your appeal rights). If you are enrolled in an ERISA-governed plan and your appeal is denied and all levels of review have been exhausted, you have the right to bring a civil action under ERISA 502(a). (To determine whether your health plan is an ERISA-governed plan, please refer to your Certificate.)

You Should Know
This notice is NOT a bill. The amount identified as patient responsibility may have already been paid to the provider at the time of service or you may have paid a different amount at that time. Please contact your provider with any billing questions.

Frequently asked questions

Q: Is this a bill?

A: No. This is your EOB, an informational piece produced to help you better understand how your benefits have been applied.

Q: Do I owe money?

A: You can review section #19 of your EOB (Patient's Responsibility) carefully. This section will inform you if you are responsible for any amount.

Q: Will I receive a bill for payment?

A: If you owe money, you'll receive a bill directly from your provider's office. Just make your check payable to your provider.
